

Joyments they had all alike experienced.

An interesting feature of the banquet was the receipt in the banquet room during the progress of the dinner of twenty-five or thirty cablesgrams of congratulation from all parts of the world. These messages were sent by crowned heads, presidents of republics, prime ministers and prominent statesmen from the four corners of the globe, and expressed the warmest views of the American press. They were obtained by the correspondents of the Associated Press in the various capitals, cabled to New York to-day, and copied in the banquet room from a telegraph wire looped up with the main submarine cables reaching the city. They were read as fast as received by the toastmaster, and then displayed to the assembled diners on cardboard sheets fifteen feet wide and four feet deep, hung on one side of the hall.

Tributes to "A. P."

Of the numerous cablesgrams received, the following are among the most interesting:

Brussels, April 28.
The American Press:
I send you my hearty regards. It is unnecessary to say anything about the enormous power of the press, the wise exercise thereof is not only an essential for the nation, but an essential to the perpetuity of the press itself. With best wishes to those upon whom rests the heavy responsibility of using that tremendous power aright, I am, sincerely,
(Signed)
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Tokio, Japan, April 28.
To the American Press:
What most I desire in a newspaper press of to-day is absolute honesty, high intelligence, true patriotism, regard for human rights and sincere desire for peace of the world. Responsibility newspapers publisher second none. I regard the Associated Press as an essential factor progress civilization.
(Signed) MARQUIS KATSURA,
Prime Minister of Japan.

London, April 28.—To the American Press: I desire to send my congratulations to the annual meeting of the Associated Press. Every good cause is indebted to it, and the cause of Irish liberty is perhaps more than any. The chief enemies of Ireland are ignorance and misrepresentation. By letting the truth be known about the aims and objects of Irish national movement, the Associated Press is doing a great service to justice and freedom.
(Signed) JOHN E. REDMOND.

Mexico City, April 28.—The Publishers of America: Mexico's greeting. The Associated Press is a beneficent institution and government. It is the instantaneous challenge to the transgressions which one or the other may commit, by an authorized witness of their acts.
(Signed) PORFIRIO DIAZ,
President of Mexico.

Manila, April 28.—The American Press: Cordial Philippine greetings. We appreciate here good work done by home newspapers and powerful influence your organization. We invite your closest scrutiny to administration islands, believing ourselves gainers from better public knowledge.
(Signed) W. CAMERON FORBES,
Governor-General of the Philippines.

Constantinople, April 28.—To the Publishers of America: The press, a machine to enlighten and mold public opinion, can, if it wishes, obscure public opinion. I hope American press always will remain faithful to its real purpose, avoiding all temptations impelling it to mislead the public.
(Signed) HAKKI BEY,
Grand Vizier of Turkey.

Paris, April 28.—To the American Press: I extend to entire American press my cordial sympathy and best wishes for its prosperity. I thank it for working for maintenance of the cordial relations which have existed for more than a century between France and the United States of America, and for realizing that the goal of the two greatest republics in the world, in their material and moral growth, is the development of the idea of justice and liberty.
(Signed) PICHON,
Foreign Minister French Republic.

Messages of congratulation were also received from the following:
Alfred Zayas, President of Cuba;
Ernesto Nathan, Mayor of Rome;
The Spanish foreign minister at Washington.

GOVERNOR MANN JOINS NEW CLUB

Army Captures Him as Member of Y. M. C. A.—Women Begin to Work

Overpowering strategy marks the last lap of the Y. M. C. A. membership campaign. An appeal has been made to the young women of the city who are friends of Y. M. C. A. men, and to-day, the last of the arduous fight, the charming plea of these will be well-nigh irresistible. Their efforts will send the total soaring skyward; for fascinating as a pretty girl ever is, in so radiant a spring time as this she will be victoriously persuasive.

To-night at 10:30 the four days' campaign ends. All day and up to that time mighty efforts will be made to run up the membership to the 2,000 point. At 6:30 the workers will meet for their final conference, and glowing reports are expected when supper is over.

Grad of the rival armies has captured Governor Mann, and their opponents hope to make Mayor Richardson join by telegraph. They stormed his office yesterday, but found that he was in Mobile at the Confederate reunion. Despite that fact, those who are going after him expect to land him before the burial of the guns.

One hundred and seventeen new members were reported at the daily lunch conference yesterday. That makes 323 new members so far. The Y. M. C. A. has 116 and the Blues 111.

Intense enthusiasm was manifest at the lunch conference yesterday. J. L. Anderson made a short speech, encouraging the workers along, and then Captains Hawkins and Harrington, the most successful ground-gainers on the opposing team, stirred up a lot of spirit, demanding big returns from their men.

URGE THEM TO PUT BOOKS IN SCHOOLS

Jackson and Davis Want Virginia History by Negroes Adopted by Board.

In a letter addressed yesterday to Colonel W. Gordon McCabe, Dr. J. A. C. Chandler and Dr. H. R. McIlwaine, who were recently appointed a committee to examine all histories offered by publishing houses for use in the public schools in Virginia, Giles B. Jackson and Webster Davis, the colored editors of the "Industrial History of the Negro Race in the United States." This is the first time that the state has been asked to put a book in the public schools written by colored men.

The editors, in pointing out the merits of their work, declare that a committee of representative colored men in the early part of last spring went to Washington and presented a copy of it to President Taft, who expressed his appreciation of the gift and promised to read it with much care.

Among the remarkable features of the volume reported forth by the editors in their letter is the fact that they accept many of the contentions of Southern historians as to the institution of slavery, showing that it was not the direct cause of the war; that it was in New England before it existed in the South; that the civilization of the colored man has been brought about by his contact with whites. "The majority of us have been taught that the war was started by the North to free the negro, but history teaches us that the negro gained his freedom as an incident of the war."

COMMENCEMENT DATES
City Public Schools to Hold Exercises in June.

At a meeting of the City School Board last night, Superintendent Chandler reported that the public schools of the city as follows:
Day schools, 15,131; a gain of 141.
Night schools, 243; a loss of 34.
The dates for the commencements were fixed by the board as follows:
Chenestier High School, in Lee Hall on June 14; John Marshall High School, in the High School auditorium on June 15; Armstrong High School, on June 16.
The thirty-six teachers of public schools in Washington Ward were placed on the pay roll of the Richmond department, as required by the annexation ordinance. The annual reorganization of the board resulted in the selection of Charles Hutzler as chairman; F. C. Ebel as vice-chairman, and Charles P. Walford as clerk and supervisor.

WOMAN SHOTS ASSAULT.
Negro Youth Meets Instant Death While Making Love.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cartersville, Va., April 25.—John Street, a negro youth, living about two miles from here, was shot and instantly killed last night while attempting to attack Jane Carlington, a colored girl, in the hands of the woman. The woman is under arrest, and an inquest was held over the dead body this evening by Magistrate Rhoads and Dr. N. P. Stone. The woman will probably be acquitted at the preliminary hearing.

Orison—Grimes.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Leesburg, Va., April 25.—John W. Orison, son of George Orison, of this county, a resident of Frederick City, Md., and Miss Judith M. Flannagan, of Charles Town, Va., a visiting minister. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Orison left for a short bridal tour South. They will reside in Frederick City, Md.

RIOTOUS DISCORD ENDS IN HARMONY

Guantanamo; Lawrence Becker, Hammond; Daniel W. Simms, Lafayette; Edward G. Hoffman, Fort Wayne; Samuel Ralston, Lebanon, and John A. Adair, Portland.

John W. Kern, who upon entering the hall learned that his name was being voiced on, mounted a chair and declared the voting for him was without his knowledge and he said, positively against his orders. He was given a tremendous ovation.

Speeches For and Against.
Senator B. P. Shively and Samuel R. Rhoads spoke against the proposition to endorse a candidate for the Senate, J. E. McCullough and John E. Lamb spoke for it.

Senator Shively protested that the convention had not been called to name a Senator, and he said he would not do so. Lamb then arose.

Immediately the convention was in a tumult. Lamb waited several minutes before he began speaking.

"I am eternally opposed to Taggartism," he said.

A riot seemed imminent. The 153 delegates from Indianapolis and Marion county, among them Taggart, arose in their places with hoots and hisses. The political delegates, from Terre Haute and Vigo county—Lamb's home—retorted with cheers. Other delegations took sides and crowded from their seats into the aisles.

"Lamb!" shouted a Terre Haute delegate.

"Baa-a-a!" mocked an Indianapolis delegate. The convention, with a roar of laughter, permitted Lamb to go on.

"This is a battle for the rights of the people," said Lamb. "If that is usurpation, I am a usurper. I am a usurper, I am a usurper, I am a usurper."

The speaker continually was interrupted by sneers from the opposition. Few of his words could be heard.

When he concluded his speech the question was put to a vote. The result of the vote was announced amid an uproar of cheers.

Most of the delegates rose to their feet, with the exception of those from Marion county.

Shively Takes Chair.
Governor Marshall then presented the permanent chairman, Senator Shively.

Senator Shively called for the report of the resolutions committee, and its report was adopted as the platform of the convention. Denunciation of the tariff was the leading plank.

Names of candidates for the nomination to the Senate then were called for.
